

The Cove

The Cove has been designed to provide health services for the owners of The Marbella at Pelican Bay and their families. The Cove provides assistance with the demands of being a "caregiver." Whether residents are caring for their parents, spouse or children, The Cove has been planned as an extension of the home for loved-ones with special health needs. The caregivers have the peace of mind of being just steps away and knowing that, as owners, they have an active voice in the quality of health services offered by the Cove.
